

AWARDS: RECOGNITION AWARD

This award as the name suggests, is an award to recognise outstanding efforts by a member or members that benefit the club. Good deeds need to be recognised.

Multiple recognition awards can be awarded.

Recognition awards are generally considered the basis for selecting the Best Club Person and President's Awards.

Eligibility

To be eligible for this award the nominee MUST be a financial member of the club.

Criteria

Similar to the Best Club Person Award the nominee(s) must meet some or part of the following criteria or provides significant, outstanding one-off service:

- Regularly volunteers and assists in on-field and off-field activities and generously donates time to the Club.
- Organises, is involved in and/or participates in fund raising activities for the Club
- Regularly attends official functions conducted by the Club.
- Makes financial commitments to the Club over and above standard fees and payments.
- Demonstrates enormous commitment to the Club in an official or unofficial capacity.
- Demonstrates excellent sportsmanship.
- Brings credibility and honour to the Club.

Nomination

All financial members of club can make nominations of whom they consider a candidate to receive a recognition award. These nominations are made to the Management Committee.

The Management Committee will meet and discuss each nomination. They will then agree or oppose and vote on those nominations.

The agreed recipients will receive their award at the club Presentation Night.
